

2020 AUGUSTA CO-OP EXCELLENCE IN SERVICE AWARDS

Every year Augusta Cooperative employees nominate and vote for an hourly and a salary employee to receive the Excellence in Service Award. All staff that fit into the full time hourly or full time salary category that have worked at Augusta Co-op for longer than six months were eligible to be nominated. The winners of this award are employees that exemplify qualities found in a great employee — including customer service, a team player and a good work ethic.

The 2019 Excellence in Service Award winners are Allyson Saufley, Weyers Cave Store Manager and Sara Wood, a driver for Greener Valley Supply in Verona.

About Allyson Saufley:

Allyson, an Augusta County native, graduated from Fort Defiance High School in 2012. She attended Virginia Tech University and graduated in December 2015 with a degree in Animal and Poultry Sciences, emphasizing in the production/business of livestock. In 2016, Allyson began her professional career as manager trainee for Augusta Co-op and later that year was promoted to Assistant Store Manager at the Weyers Cave location. In the fall of 2017, Allyson was promoted to Weyers Cave Store Manager. Her love for agriculture, horses, livestock, and raising honey bees remains as a passion in her spare time.

About Sara Wood:

Sara grew up on her family owned beef and poultry farm in Albemarle County. She worked for many years in property management before joining Augusta Co-op. Sara joined the Co-op team in 2017, where she has held several positions, and is currently a driver for Greener Valley Supply in Verona. She and her husband currently live in Augusta County where she enjoys horseback riding in her spare time.

Congratulations to the Augusta Co-op 2020 Excellence in Service winners.
